

DRIVING 101

Final Examination

Version 1

- 27) What would be your first major action if your engine should lose power or putter in heavy traffic?
- a) Shift to a lower gear and pump accelerator
 - b) Signal other drivers, and gradually steer to the side of the road
 - c) Shift to neutral, and coast until car comes to a stop at the side of the road
 - d) Apply brakes and stop as soon as possible in the same lane
- 28) When driving along and suddenly the hood of the car flies up leaving you little or no visibility, what should you do?
- a) Try to look through the opening between the hood and engine or look out of the left window and steer safely to the side of the road
 - b) Slow down quickly to avoid hitting the car ahead
 - c) Check traffic to the rear and apply brakes
 - d) Put on your hazard lights and steer off the road
- 29) What is the most important emergency equipment a driver should carry in their vehicle when driving in bad weather?
- a) Battery jumper cables; shovel; sand; matches and candles
 - b) Spare fan belt; engine anti-freeze; extra clothing; spare fuses
 - c) Non-perishable food; tow-cable; tire gauge; flashlight
 - d) arm blanket; emergency flares; first aid equipment; ice scraper
- 30) Why is good peripheral vision so important to safe driving?
- a) it allows you to detect side objects and movement
 - b) it allows you to pinpoint objects and movement
 - c) it minimizes eye strain
 - d) all of the above