

DRIVING 101

Final Examination

Version 2

- 10) A person who has had two drinks within a one-hour period would be described as:
- a) Very impaired
 - b) Impaired
 - c) Not impaired
 - d) Impairment is not obvious
- 11) The most accurate statement to be made about alcohol and driving is that:
- a) A person has to drink quite a lot before it affects his/her driving very much
 - b) Alcohol in any amount can affect a person's driving
 - c) Alcohol affects everybody differently; some people can drink a lot without it affecting their driving and others are affected by only a small amount
 - d) The effect of alcohol can be minimized by eating and drinking coffee
- 12) What is the potential effect on driving when mixing drugs with alcohol?
- a) It will neutralize the affect of the alcoholic drug
 - b) It will multiply the separate effect of each drug
 - c) It acts as a sedative and neutralized anger
 - d) It tends to make the driver more alert
- 13) The most sensible thing you can do to fight fatigue while driving is:
- a) Take pep-up pills
 - b) Keep the windows open
 - c) Talk to passengers & Play the radio
 - d) Stop the car and take a rest