

DRIVING 101

Final Examination

Version 2

- 1) Aggressive driving can reduce the fuel efficiency of a vehicle by up to:
 - a) 10 %
 - b) 20 %
 - c) 30 %
 - d) 40 %

- 2) When an emergency vehicle is approaching in either direction with emergency lights activated, the law requires vehicles to:
 - a) Pull over to the right side of the road and stop
 - b) Lane change if possible, otherwise slow down
 - c) Keep driving with due care attention at the posted speed
 - d) Pull over to the left side of the road and stop

- 3) When an emergency vehicle is stopped with emergency lights activated at the side of the road, the law requires vehicles approaching from behind to:
 - a) Lane change if possible, otherwise slows down.
 - b) Pull over and stop.
 - c) Keep driving with due care attention at the posted speed
 - d) None of the above

- 4) When passing a car at night, which of the following steps should be taken?
 - a) Dim your headlights as you approach the vehicle
 - b) Warn the driver ahead of your intention to pass by switching your high beams on and off
 - c) When it is safe to do so, signal, check mirrors and blind spot and pull out to pass
 - d) All of the above