

DRIVING 101

Final Examination

Version 2

- 31) When driving, why is constant eye movement so important to the human brain?
- a) The human brain can only really pay attention one thing at a time
  - b) The human brain can handle many details at one time
  - c) It will keep the driver mentally alert
  - d) It helps to minimize mental distractions
- 32) A driver should always look at least _____ seconds ahead?
- a) 15
  - b) 10
  - c) 8
  - d) 3
- 33) Why must a driver maintain a space cushion?
- a) it will allow the driver time and space to avoid a collision
  - b) because the law requires you to do so
  - c) the inexperienced driver needs more time to stop
  - d) it avoids the need for sudden braking
- 34) When steering, you should look in the distance:
- a) at the obstacles and other cars you want to avoid
  - b) where you'll be in 15 to 20 seconds
  - c) at the bumper of the car ahead
  - d) all of the above
- 35) Strategic driving requires that the driver have:
- a) knowledge
  - b) motor skills
  - c) sound attitudes
  - d) all the above